SENIOR SURGEON & SANIT. COMMR. MYSORE GOVT. ✣ OFFICE OF
12. JUN. 1912
BANGALORE.

Resolution

Resolved that the Dispensary which was meant for Varthur, a large village situated on the Sarjapur-Kadgodi road was located at Varthur for a long time and it was shifted to Whitefield only temporarily on account of the outbreak of Plague at the former place and it is now removed to its proper place. The District Medical and Sanitary officer is however of opinion that there there is hardly any accommodation at Whitefield for the dispensary and that Varthur has got proper accomodation for the Hospital assistant and dispensary servants to live in and also for any patients who may reside to stay in the village for treatment.

SUBJECT.

of the resolution of the Dist Board dated the 20th May '12, to the effect that the Dispensary was temporarily located at Whitefield on account of plague in Varthur and it was retransferred to Varthur, its proper place, and that, in the opinion of the Dist medical officer of the Bangalore Dist, Varthur is more suited than whitefield for the Dispensary, as there is accomodation in Varthur for the residence of the Sub-asst Surgeon & the dispensary servants as also for the patients who may wish to stay for treatment, while, in whitefield, there is hardly accomodation for the dispensary.

Order thereon:- 143-5 Med 41-11—6 dy 5.7.12

Recorded with the observation that, in the circumstances stated in the resolution of the District Board, Govt do not consider it expedient to order the removal of the Dispensary to Whitefield.
